

Hello

First, I want to thank everyone for their patience as Princess Cruises had some delays as they finished putting together the final touches on their 2010 Alaska cruises. With that aside let me explain a few things about the upcoming fundraising Tour and Cruise that "GREAT" Greyhound Rescue & Adoptions of Tampa Bay will be sponsoring.

In the flyer you will find pricing for both the 11 night Tour and Cruise and just the 7 night cruise only. I priced the package this way so those of you who cannot get away for 11 nights can join us on the 7 night cruise. I have cruised Alaska and I must say if you can get away for all 11 days you won't be disappointed. Alaska is such a beautiful state.

New for 2010, Princess Cruises will be offering a program called Seattle Roundtrip Advantage. This program will make flying to Alaska more economical for everyone. Instead of having to purchase two costly one way tickets you can now fly round trip Seattle. A lot of passengers like this Seattle Roundtrip Advantage program so they can fly Southwest Airlines in and out of Seattle. The Seattle Roundtrip Advantage program will have you make your air arrangements to arrive in Seattle the day before your tour begins. The program will then include one night hotel stay in Seattle, they will then transfer you from your hotel to the airport where you will fly from Seattle to Anchorage to begin your tour. Upon arrival in Anchorage they will transfer you by motorcoach to your hotel in Anchorage and then transfer you back to Seattle when your cruise ends in Vancouver.

You will also find Princess Transfer prices for those who would like to just fly into Anchorage and out of Vancouver. These Princess Transfers are also good for those of you taking just the 7 night cruise.

I will also be reserving a hotel on the return for those of you that need to fly out the next day. The Princess Cruise Transfers from Vancouver will have you back in Seattle so you can catch a 4pm flight. Most flights to the east coast leave in the morning unless you want to take a redeye flight. Call or email me rates if you need a room on the return.

I will be holding a Cruise Sale for those of you that want to sign up now. The Cruise Sale will run from May 7th to June 13th. For those of you that sign up during that time your deposit will be only $100 per person and you will not have to pay anything until final payment which is due April 8, 2010. You will also get a $325 coupon book to use while onboard the ship with discounts in the shops, spa, internet café etc. If you do not book during the Cruise Sale you can still sign up but you will have to pay 20% of your cruise cost as your deposit.

Also enclosed you will find a brochure regarding trip cancellation insurance by Travelex Insurance Company. If you want the insurance to cover pre-existing medical conditions you must purchase the insurance within 21 days of your initial trip deposit.

I know this is a lot of information to digest and I know you will have questions. Please feel free to ask as many questions as you may have. You can either email me at jalmoney@att.net or call me 210-688-9397 (home office).

We look forward to having you join us as we explore 'The Last Frontier', the wildlife and beauty of Alaska's National Parks, America's tallest mountains, spectacular Glaciers, and cruise the glassy-smooth waters of the inside passage while feasting on reindeer chili and salmon! This is TRULY a once in a lifetime adventure!!
